

The Canyon Weekly

September 25, 2015

Volume 6, Issue 38

Your local news source for the North Santiam Canyon

Serving the communities of Lyons, Mehama, Elkhorn, Mill City, Gates, Niagara, Detroit, Breitenbush, Idanha and Marion Forks

75 cents

Thank you for supporting your local newspaper throughout the past year!

Check us out online for free in full color!
www.TheCanyonWeekly.com

ABBA/Queen concert grosses over $4000 for Santiam Hearts to Arts

Mamma Mia! The 70's were alive and well at Stayton High School Sunday afternoon. An audience of over 300 welcomed the Portland Gay Men's Chorus (PGMC) to the newly refurbished auditorium for an afternoon of music from popular 1970's bands, ABBA and Queen. The local Santiam Canyon Community Chorus opened the evening the evening the Arts in the followed by a special solo by up and coming musical artist, Paige Hanna of Mill City. The event, a fundraiser for Santiam Hearts to Arts (SH2A) had people singing along and dancing in their seats. The proceeds from the concert and raffle grossed over $4000 for SH2A, the local non-profit that helps to support the Arts in the

Dave Shelton, Sharlene Trexler and Tom Peters were a vital part of the concert fundraiser. Photo by Rust Bucket Photography